

MOVING FROM STAGE TO SOCIETY

Dance, Music & Wellbeing

An intensive training with Andrew Greenwood
Introducing the Social Implicit Movement (SIM) Programme.

© Peter Meisel

Intensive Training

Friday, 17 April
17:00–21:00

Saturday, 18 April
10:00–17:00

Sunday, 19 April
10:00–13:00

Costs
€150,—

Come Dance With Us - Open Afternoon

Sunday, 19 April
14:00–17:00

Free & Open to All

© Alexander Kabanov

Registration & Information

anmeldung@artsforhealthaustria.eu

ARTS for HEALTH
AUSTRIA

Ballet Academy of the Vienna State Opera

GOETHEGASSE 1
1010 VIENNA

When dance and music take centre stage in health, learning and human connection

THE SIM PROGRAMME

Physical Wellbeing

Cognitive Engagement

Emotional Resilience

Social Connection

wiener staatsballett

Federal Ministry
Housing, Arts, Culture,
Media and Sport
Republic of Austria

Co-funded by the European Union

CULTURE AND HEALTH
EUROPEAN COMMISSION
SUPPORTING ARTISTS

Who is this training for?

- Dancers & Dance educators
- Musicians & Music Educators
- Healthcare professionals
- Artists & educators exploring social impact and innovation

What will you learn?

- Guiding Movement Experiences
- Using Music for Wellbeing
- Cognitive & Emotional Skills
- Designing Inclusive Artistic Environments
- Connect Artistic Excellence with Social Relevance

Moving from Stage to Society

- New Career Pathways
- Interdisciplinary Collaboration
- Meaningful Community Impact
- Sustainable Professional Development
- Socially Engaged Artistic Practice

COME DANCE WITH US

email: anmeldung@artsforhealthaustria.eu

Discover how dance and music can support wellbeing, connection, and participation.

19 April 2026

14:00 – 17:00

A fun experience, free and open to all!

Ballet Academy
of the Vienna State Opera
Goethegasse 1
1010 Vienna